

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2991

February 28, 2012

SUMMARY OF BILL: Creates a Class C misdemeanor offense for a person to fail to produce identification or to fail to identify himself or herself when asked by a police officer for the purpose of enforcing the criminal laws of Tennessee. Specifies that "identification" includes a government-issued form of identification or the person's true name and date of birth.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- There will not be a sufficient number of misdemeanor prosecutions for state or local government to experience any significant increase in revenue or expenditures.
- Any increase in caseloads for state or local courts can be accommodated within existing judicial resources without an increased appropriation or reduced reversion.

CERTIFICATION:

The information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Lucian D. Geise".

Lucian D. Geise, Executive Director

/lsc